Character Diamante

Book title _____ Character _____

Choose a character that interests you. Complete the Character Changes activity sheet to help you think of important character traits and changes that happen to this character. Using the information from Character Changes and following the steps below, write a character diamante poem.

Character diamante structure

- Line 1 A noun (the character's name)
- Line 2 Two adjectives that describe the character's personality
- Line 3 Three -ing verbs that tell about your character's actions
- Line 4 Four nouns (the first two are the two most important people, places, and things related to this character; the next two nouns are people, places, and things that would NEVER fit with this character)
- Line 5 Three -ing verbs that describe actions that would never fit this character
- Line 6 Two adjectives that describe traits that would never fit this character
- Line 7 A noun (the name of the character with the word NOT! before it or the name of a character that is the opposite to your character)

 NOT! Cinderella

Station #3

1. Create a Person Book by following the directions on the page.
2. On the inside of the flaps, create 4 boxes.
3. On each box, write a word to describe Annie. Then write a story event that demonstrates how the word fits her.

DO NOT GLUE THIS IN YOUR JOURNAL!!! Place your completed book in the Finished Work tray.

Person Book

Materials

- 12" x 18" construction paper
- 6" x 6" construction paper
- scissors
- glue
- crayons, markers
- construction paper scraps
- 8" x 5" writing paper
- stapler

Instructions for Making the Book

1. Fold a piece of 12" x 18" construction paper into eight equal sections as shown.

2. Cut out sections E and H. Save these for arm pieces.

3. Fold sections A and D toward the center to make a vest or jacket. Glue on the arms as shown.

4. Cut a head from the 6" x 6" piece of construction paper. Glue it to the top of sections B and C. To make pants, cut a small triangle between sections F and G as shown.

5. Draw a face; add hair and clothing. Add hands and shoes cut from paper scraps.

6. Staple the story pages as shown.

Station #4

1. Read the following prompt and complete it in your journal.

You are Annie. Create an advertisement for your food stand to convince the cotton gin and sawmill workers to buy your food. Be sure to make it colorful and attractive for your potential buyers.
